PHENIX HOTEL,
(Corner of Main and Mulberry Streets),
Lexington, Kentucky.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has leased this old and well known Hotel, in the city of Lexington, and that he has taken charge of the same.

The House has recently undergone a thorough renovation; the rooms are newly and neatly furnished; and still further improvements will be made to render it in all respects worthy of public patronage, and an agreeable home to those who may avail themselves of its privileges.

Intending to devote his own time and attention to the business, and to surround himself with competent assistants, together with faithful, polite and attentive servants, he gives the assurance to the public that no efforts on his part shall be wanting to make the old Phoenix in all respects worthy of its reputation in its palmy days.

Professions, however, are too easily and too frequently made to be of much value unless accompanied by corresponding acts, and he, therefore, only asks that the public may test the sincerity of his pledges by giving him a call. They will always find him ready to minister to their comforts in the best manner in his power.

LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS
THESE MEDICINES have now been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infallible.
Dyspepsia, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acid kind; Flatulency, loss of appetite, Heart-Burn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-Temper, Anxiety, Langor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

Constipation, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.
Fever of all kinds, by restoring the blood to regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and Gout in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

Dropsies of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of Dropsy.

Also Worms, by dissolving from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.
Scurvy, Ulcers, and Incurable Sores, by the perfect purity which these Life Medicines give to the blood, and all the humors.

Scorbutic Eruptions, and Bad Complexions, by their salutary effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, scallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy, and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease; a cure by these Medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

Bilious Fevers and Liver Complaints.—General Debility, Loss of Appetite, and Diseases of Females—the Medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description. Scrophulous, Eczema, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Action, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

Mercurial Diseases.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of mercury, will find these Medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparations of Sarsaparilla.

For sale by all Druggists. oct15, '60—wly.

Messrs. WORTHINGTON, SPALDING and BAKER had leave to record their votes for the congressional apportionment bill, and Messrs. GARDNER and BUSTER had leave to record their votes against it. These gentlemen were absent from the Senate chamber when the bill was passed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. GROVER—Finance—Asked to be discharged from a memorial of citizens of Anderson county: discharged. The memorial was then referred to the committee on Internal Improvement.

Same—A bill further to define the duties and compensation of the agent of the auditor: passed.

Same—A bill for the benefit of the sheriff of Hart county: before action on the bill the hour arrived for the SPECIAL ORDER FOR 10 O'CLOCK.

The Senate took up the House Resolutions in relation to Col. J. H. McHenry, Jr., the substitute offered for the H. R. Resolutions by the majority of the committee on Federal Relations, and the substitute offered by Mr. RHEA from the minority of the committee, and the substitute offered for the whole subject by Mr. M. P. MARSHALL.

Mr. SPEED addressed the Senate at considerable length, in favor of the substitute of the majority of the committee for the House resolutions.

Mr. WORTHINGTON addressed the Senate, justifying Col. McHenry's course, and condemning his dismissal. He replied to some of the arguments of Mr. SPEED.

Mr. M. P. MARSHALL addressed the Senate on the whole subject, at length, and in support of the substitute offered by him.

Mr. WHITAKER addressed the Senate at length upon the whole subject. He replied to some of the arguments of Mr. MARSHALL, briefly. He took the ground that the dismissal of Col. McHenry was in accordance with military law and discipline. He spoke in high terms of Col. McHenry as a gallant officer and gentleman, but could not vote for the resolutions justifying his order. He would cheerfully vote for the presentation of a sword to Col. McHenry for gallant conduct and high merit as an officer, if separated from these resolutions, but he could not vote for them, as they took ground which was not tenable, and would subvert the discipline of the army, and he thought the Legislature had nothing to do with the matter.

He considered this endorsement of Col. McHenry would be a quasi condemnation of upwards of thirty other Colonels in Kentucky, for not having issued such orders as he had. The other Colonels were equally loyal and patriotic with the gallant Colonel McHenry.

Mr. M. P. MARSHALL replied briefly to Mr. WHITAKER.

Mr. DeHAVEN obtained the floor; but yielded it temporarily to Mr. M. P. MARSHALL to make a motion for

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Which was granted to Mr. WHITAKER until Thursday next.

EVENING SESSION.

At three o'clock the Speaker called the Senate to order, no quorum being present, Mr. DeHAVEN moved to adjourn: the motion carried.

And then the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, Feb. 24th, 1863.

The reading of the journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

PETITIONS.

Were presented by Messrs. R. J. BROWNE and WOLFE, (of Anna Eliza Gerhart) and appropriately referred.

RECONSIDERATION.

Mr. BLUE moved to take up the motion to reconsider the vote passing a bill for the benefit of D. B. Winsted, of Webster county: adopted, and bill referred to committee on County Courts.

LOUIS DESBA.

Mr. RANKIN, from the select committee, to whom was referred the investigation of the conduct of the above gentleman, made a report exonerating him from all charges as to his aiding and abetting the rebellion. The report of the committee was then adopted unanimously.

SPECIAL ORDER FOR 10 O'CLOCK.

Being Senate bill concerning the Penitentiary, with an amendment from the committee to the Penitentiary, fixing the price for the keeper to pay, annually, $5,000.

Mr. BUSH moved to amend the amendment by making the sum $9,000 in place of $5,000: rejected—yeas, 15, nays, 51.

The amendment of the committee was then adopted—yeas, 77; nays, 5.

The bill, as amended, was then passed—yeas, 77; nays, 4.

SPECIAL ORDER FOR 11 O'CLOCK.

Being the resolutions offered by Mr. FINNELL to call into service three regiments of State Guard, together with sundry amendments.

Several amendments were offered and rejected.

Mr. HUSTON offered the following as a substitute for the resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the committee on Military Affairs prepare and report this House a bill to raise not exceeding five thousand State troops, for twelve months service, to act as mounted infantry in the defense of the State, either under the existing laws or by other organization, and that the necessary means be raised by the State.

The question was then taken upon adopting the resolution as amended, and it was decided in the affirmative.

BILLS REPORTED.

Mr. CHAMBERS—Education—For the benefit of school district No. 20, in Meade county: passed.

And then the House adjourned.

The Rebel Convention.

"On the day appointed, the delegates met in full force—applied for the use of the Hall of the House of Representatives—were refused, and took another public building in which to transact their reasonable business. They were unexpectedly interrupted by the military commandant of the post at the capital, and dispersed. This was exactly right. Let them go to Richmond, the seat of the rebel Government—to Charleston, where the great rebellion started with the firing upon Fort Sumpter—to the home of Mr. Yancey or any other hot-bed of treason—anywhere but upon the soil of loyal Kentucky, to further corrupt the public mind and bring increased trouble to our people already suffering quite enough through their mischievous maneuvering. To have permitted these plotters of evil to assemble unmolested at Frankfort—the capital of Kentucky—her people professing to be loyal—would have been a most degrading exhibition of fear or dread of growing power upon the part of those in rebellion. The Legislature of Kentucky acted wisely and well in refusing the use of their Hall to this assembly, and after another place of meeting had been selected, the prompt interference of Col. Gilbert is commendable in the highest degree. Kentucky is regarded as a loyal State, and let those whose sympathies—interests—all they hold most dear, are identified with the States in rebellion, go where their inclinations lead—and hold their treasonable meetings upon ground devoted to their cause. Let them take their stand among their friends and upon soil dedicated to them—not audaciously flaunt their treason in the faces of those who are honestly battling against them and their purposes. They have a Provisional Governor in Virginia—members in the Confederate Congress whom they elected, and an army under Gen. Breckinridge which they recruited in our midst. All this we should think would be satisfactory to them without further efforts to annoy a formidable majority firmly arrayed against them. When the Union Legislature of Kentucky was in assembly at Frankfort last fall, the rebel army marched to Lexington, and the Legislature was forced to retreat to Louisville. That was all right in rebel opinion. Now, while Union troops occupy the State these same rebels claim the privilege to hold a Convention, unmolested at the same place while the Legislature is again in session there. They were treated just as they deserved to be. They were unexpectedly forced to give up their treasonable plans and enactments to hunt some other theater for action."

Lincoln, Commander-in-Chief.

Mr. Lincoln is, by the Constitution, commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of the United States. It is also well known that Mr. Lincoln is in the habit of exercising the authority of that position, without much regard to the opinions of his military subordinates, who have had rather more experience, to say the least, of military service than he has. But of course a man who thus essays to command armies, and control the fate of vast movements, should possess military knowledge of some kind. In a speech delivered by Mr. Lincoln in Congress, in 1846, he thus revealed to the country his military experience:

By the way, Mr. Speaker, did you know that I am a military hero? Yes, sir, in the days of the Black Hawk war I fought, bled and came away. Speaking of Gen. Cass' career reminds me of my own. I was not at Stillman's defeat but was about as near it as Cass was to Hull's surrender; and like him I saw the place soon afterwards. It is quite certain that I did not break my sword, for I had none to break; but I bent a musket pretty badly on one occasion. If Gen. Cass broke his sword, the idea is, he broke it in desperation; I bent the musket by accident. If Gen. Cass went in advance of me in picking whortleberries, I guess I surpassed him in charges upon the wild onions. If he saw any live fighting Indians, it was more than I did, but I had a good many bloody struggles with the mosquito; and although I never fainted from loss of blood, I can truly say I was often very hungry.

Mr. Speaker, if I should ever conclude to doff whatever our Democratic friends may suppose there is of black cockade federalism about me, and thereupon they shall rake me up as their candidate for the Presidency. I protest they shall not make fun of me, as they have of Gen. Cass, by attempting to write me into a military hero.

A MARRIAGE IN THE STREET.—While a young lawyer of Manchester, N. H., was on his way home, on Tuesday evening of last week, the thermometer standing at zero, and the streets almost deserted for the night, he was met by a man and a woman who wished him to marry them. He suggested in vain that it was late and rather cold, and that they would do better to call in the morning; but the candidates were resolved, and married they were on the spot.

COUNTING-HOUSE CALENDAR FOR THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1863.

Union Convention!

At a meeting of the Union members of the Legislature, in the House of Representatives, on Monday evening, Feb. 16th, 1863, on motion, Hon. Joseph R. Underwood was called to the Chair, and John B. Bruner, appointed Secretary.

After a free and full consultation it is recommended to the Union Democracy of Kentucky that they assemble in convention, through their delegates, in the city of Louisville, on the 18th day of March next, and nominate suitable persons as candidates to fill the various State offices, to be chosen at the next August election. It is further recommended that the people meet, at some convenient time and place, in their respective counties, and appoint delegates to represent them in the convention.

J. R. UNDERWOOD, Chairman.
JOHN B. BRUNER, Secretary.

THE REBEL INVASION.—There can be no doubt but our State is invaded by an insolent rebel marauding band of cavalry. The number, however, we are unable to state, but from the best information we have been able to obtain, we think there are not more than 2,500 or 3,000. Their object is to plunder and steal every thing they can lay their hands on.

The information we have received as to their whereabouts and movements is so conflicting and vague that we do not feel willing to make any positive statement about them as being certainly true. The latest intelligence we have is that the rebels were going in the direction of Winchester and Mount Sterling and that Union troops were in pursuit of them, and some skirmishing had taken place between the pickets of the two forces.

We learn from a young gentleman who arrived here last evening, who was in Paris Monday night, that some rebel pickets fired upon Union soldiers who were guarding the railroad bridge at that place. The Union soldiers made a fort of the jail, and no damage was done by the rebels. We suppose they were not in any considerable force, or they would have destroyed the bridge and taken possession of the town.

We learn, also, from the same source, that it was reported on reliable authority at Paris, that the rebels had captured 14 army wagons, between Paris and Mount Sterling.

General Rosecrans' report of the battle of Stone River, he makes special mention of the officers who distinguished themselves and whose troops rendered good service. We quote below, those from Kentucky, from General Rosecrans' report:

"SPECIAL MENTION."

I append a list of officers and enlisted men whose names are embraced in the scroll of glory, for conspicuous merit and conduct in the battle of Stone River. The record is official. It is as follows:

NAMES SPECIALLY MENTIONED FOR IMPORTANT SERVICES IN THE BATTLE OF STONE RIVER.

Col. Murray, 3d Kentucky Cavalry, rendered important and distinguished service, gallantly charging and dispersing the enemy's cavalry, in their attack on our train, Wednesday, 31st December.

DIVISION COMMANDER PALMER.—Col. Sedgwick, 2d Kentucky; Col. D. A. Bryant, 1st Kentucky; Col. Ross, 9th Ohio; Col. Osborne, 31st Indiana. Displayed marked gallantry on the field, and handled their respective commands with skill and judgment.

Col. Grider, 9th Kentucky. Commanded brigade, and is especially mentioned for gallantry and coolness under trying circumstances.

DIVISION COMMANDER ROUSSEAU.—Col. O. A. Loomis, 1st Michigan Artillery. Rendered most important services throughout the battle.

STAFF OF MAJOR GENERAL CRITTENDEN.—Maj. Lynne Stirling, A. O. G., specially mentioned by Major General Crittenden for gallantry in the battles, general efficiency, and 13 months' faithful service.

DIVISION COMMANDER JOHNSON.—Lieut. Col. Hotchkiss, 8th Illinois Volunteers, Lieut. Colonel Jones, 39th Indiana Volunteers, recommended for promotion for meritorious conduct. Lieut. Colonel W. W. Berry, Louisville Legion, specially mentioned for gallant and meritorious conduct; is also specially mentioned by Major General Rousseau, for retreating in good order before overwhelming force, and drawing off by hand a section of artillery he had been ordered to support.

Lieut. Col. W. W. Berry, of the Louisville Legion, performed a service which is pronounced by military men to be unprecedented. While retreating, his men in good order, though opposed by greatly superior numbers, no confusion or panic occurring, and discipline being perfectly preserved, he succeeded in drawing off, by hand, a section of artillery. This feat, it is said, was never surpassed, if equalled.

We know Col. Berry, and we do not believe there is a more brave and patriotic officer in the Union Army, and we sincerely trust that his merits will not be longer overlooked by those in authority. We feel confident that but for his extreme modesty he would long since have attained to a higher rank. He is as modest as he is brave, and while others who have no more qualifications or merit, and certainly not more courage, have been promoted because they or their friends were more inclined to push their claims, he has been overlooked on account of his modesty. This is not the first occasion by several in which he has rendered services meriting promotion.

P. S.—Since writing the above we have learned that Col. Berry has been promoted to the colonelcy of the Legion. We bespeak still higher honors for him.

Some persons think that a proper manner in which to have suppressed the rebel convention of the 18th, was to have had a resolution passed by the Legislature requiring it to disperse. Why, the convention would have done all the devilment they intended to do while such a resolution was being discussed. And that delectable body would have asked the Legislature to "pardon" the "cheer," while he argued the "great fundamental right" of a Kentucky rebel to plot against his Government.

The rebel convention, which met here on the 18th, was rotten with treason, from the "cheer" down to the door keeper. Col. Gilbert, why did you not "pardon" the "cheer" while he made a few brief remarks?

Suppose a Kentuckian owed or was responsible for a large amount of money to citizens of Illinois? And suppose one of the same tribe had a large claim against some Mississippi rebel? The first one would wish to get Kentucky out of the Union, in order to avoid the Illinois debt, while the last one would wish the same revolt, in order to save his Mississippi debt.

Who's hit? Certainly nobody on the rebel State Central Committee?

On the 17th February, when the resolution to tender the use of the Hall of the House of Representatives to the new born "Democratic party," (alias rebels), was under consideration, Mr. J. P. SPARKS, of Henry, said "that he had been a Democrat all of his life. That the Jeff. Davis party were not Democrats; many of them had never given a Democratic vote in their lives. They were 'Lafayettees,' which signified that they were low down and low minded fellows. They were foes to their country. Co. represented them to be in co-hoot with the Indian tribes, and with the devil himself, to overthrow the best Government that has ever been established since Adam was a little boy."

We are indebted to Hon. Garrett Davis, Hon. J. J. Crittenden, Hon. C. A. Wickliffe, and Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, for favors conferred by sending us valuable public documents. They will please accept our thanks for them.

The last will and testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, late of Antia township, Blair co, Penn., was admitted to probate on Monday last. The deceased was in many respects a remarkable woman. She was born in the year 1754, consequently she was 109 years old when she died. To realize the changes that occurred during her long and eventful life, we have only to reflect that at the time of her birth Washington was beleaguered by the French at Fort Mifflin; Pittsburgh was then a small fort in possession of the French; that Braddock was defeated next year; that she was 21 years old at the Declaration of Independence, and was 53 at the breaking out of the war of 1812! She lived before steamboats were invented, saw canals cross the Mountain, the "iron horse" do the same, and the telegraph compete with thought. Last and saddest of all, she lived to see traitors striving to break up the Government, which her husband fought and bled to establish.

The Louisville Democrat says: "According to theology, illustrated by Milton, the Devil has immense intellectual power—having vast resources, immense executive talent, great tact, and smartness generally. Some people imagine that because Jeff. Davis is so like him, he must be a capital man to live under. They ought to go and try it awhile. "We have, even under this weak and miserable administration, at least some of the forms of law, and the semblance of a good representative Government, with a fair degree of personal protection. Jeff. Davis' Government, on the contrary, is nothing but the most odious of military despotisms."

A letter from New York says that speculations in real estate in that city last week were unusually large, and adds: "The speculative movement is steadily increasing, and prices, as a general thing, have attained a higher figure than prevailed previous to the war. Marble-faced stores in Worth street, near Broadway, which were offered at $90,000 before the rebellion, were sold at from $108,000 to $112,000. Some of these purchases are for investment, but the majority of them are for foreign importers and others, desirous of removing their places of business further up town."

The New York Journal of Commerce says: "The bark Benefactor, Capt. Berry, which arrived last week from Yokohama, (bay of Yedo,) brings the first cargo of tea imported into New York from Japan since the opening of trade with that country. Hitherto the teas and silks of Japan have found their way to the Atlantic States, via China, where the teas have been refined and repacked. The Benefactor's cargo has been prepared in Yokohama, with especial reference to its sale in the American market, the firing and packing being superintended by Chinese sent to Japan for the purpose. The tea of Japan resembles the finest green tea of China, known as Moynne, differing chiefly in this, that it is perfectly pure and free from all coloring matter. While the Japan tea is not deficient in strength, it has a delicacy and softness of flavor which has already made it very popular."

We are sorry to hear of small-pox among the Massachusetts 40th at New Orleans, but a consulting cotemporary thinks it may be only measles.

The N. Y. Post again hears of important measures on foot which will be "damaging to the rebellion." Well, hurry them up and the more the better.

MONVINGSTAR'S CAMPBELL MINSTRELS.—We have been requested to state that this band of minstrels had made engagements to perform at Lexington on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, of this week; but owing to circumstances over which they had no control, they were prevented from fulfilling their engagement. Last evening, the way being clear, they felt it to be their duty to visit that city, and hence the non-fulfillment of their proposed concert last evening.

The Louisville Journal says: "On Saturday last a gang of fifteen or twenty rebel guerrillas entered the village known as South Union Station, on the Memphis Branch of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and set fire to the depot building, containing about fifty hogheads tobacco and a quantity of corn belonging to the Government. The building and stores were destroyed. This gang is supposed to be the advance of a much larger force, which meditates another raid upon the Louisville and Nashville Railroad."

The officers of the pirate Florida were very talkative while at Nassau. They laughed at the Vanderbilt, said they could never overtake them, placed the Florida's speed at seventeen miles an hour easy, and declared their intention to look after some of the rich East India vessels.

While hunting after deserters in New York the other day, the United States officers discovered in a house in Brooklyn, in a bed where reposed a charming young lady, a very animated bolster! It proved to be a soldier enveloped in a cotton envelope, and, when pinched, gruffly exclaimed, "I'll fight the whole J—d crowd of you." He was relieved of such a task, however, and reclaimed to the service of Uncle Samyule.

Major General T. L. Crittenden arrived in Cincinnati on Saturday to testify before the Buell Military Commission. He is accompanied by his aid-de-camp, Major Buford, Captain Knox, and Captain John McCook. The commission have changed their quarters to more convenient rooms at Pike's Opera House.

The London Athenaeum intimates that the greatest injury ever done to the cause of negro emancipation was the publication of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

AVARICE.—A French paper, published at Nantes, records the suicide of Mr. B., a Postmaster, residing at Chateaubriant, (Loire Interieure), and possessing a fortune of at least 150,000fr., but extremely avaricious. He had paid 18,000 francs to one of his relatives, but was so averse to parting with the money that, on learning of the person's arrival, he retired to his chamber and blew out his brains with a fowling piece.

BRITISH MACHINERY.—Exports of British machinery are increasing. India and Australia are the best customers of the English iron manufacturers. The value of the steam-engines shipped in the first ten months of 1862 was £1,283,000, being an increase of more than £200,000 on last year. During the same period the foreign expenditure on English telegraphic wire and apparatus rose from £171,000 to £246,000.

DEATH OF D. W. YANDELL. M. D.—Information reached the city Wednesday, says the Louisville Democrat, to the effect that Dr. D. W. Vandell, well known in this city, died in Chattanooga about a week ago. He was a surgeon in the Confederate army, and while engaged in a surgical operation some time since, he accidentally cut his finger with a knife which contained poisonous matter, resulting in his death.

We would call the attention of our readers to the "ordinance" of the City Council, in our paper of to-day.

What Sort of a Blow It Is.

The emancipation proclamation was pronounced unconstitutional by the President in his inaugural address, when he said that he believed he had no lawful right, directly or indirectly, to interfere with slavery in the States. Again, in a dispatch to Mr. Dayton, at Paris, the President through his Secretary of State, Mr. Seward, repented its unconstitutionality in still stronger terms. On the 17th of February, 1862, its utter rejection was denied by the President in a similar dispatch to Mr. Adams, at London, because "although the war has not been waged against slavery, yet the army acts immediately as an emancipating crusade, and to proclaim the crusade was unnecessary." And afterwards, on the 10th of March last, it was declared in a like dispatch, that "if the Government of the United States should precipitately decree the immediate abolition of slavery, it would reinvigorate the declining insurrection in every part of the South; and France and England are asked 'if they want to see a social revolution here, with all its horrors, like the slave revolution in San Domingo?'"

Was, then, this proclamation to put down the rebellion? Why, no; for we see it has been declared it would give the rebellion invigorated strength. Its unconstitutionality is admitted, with a shudder, while contemplating the horrors of a servile insurrection.

What is the effect? It unshakes public sentiment. The assumption of the power can as legally decree the annihilation of every State Government in the North. There are two ways to dissolve this Union—severance of the States from the authority of the Federal Constitution, and usurpations by the State governments. Destroy the State governments and the Union under the Constitution that instant falls.

The proclamation is a blow for absolute dominion and power, crushing both the Union and the Republic.—Chicago Times.

A SPLENDID INVESTMENT

FOR GREEN BACKS!

I WILL sell my farm, two and a half miles above Frankfort, on the Kentucky river, for Green Backs on very reasonable terms. Said farm is one of the best in Franklin county, and contains about 400 ACRES in all—one hundred acres of which is now in wheat. There are about 150 acres well set in grass. There are about 1,000 Fruit Trees, in orchards, of the very best variety of fruits. The fruits alone will pay ten per cent. upon the investment, if properly taken care of. There is

A First rate Dwelling House, in excellent order, with all the necessary outbuildings, together with a large and commodious barn, an ice house, new filled with ice, and a spring house, over a never failing spring of pure, good water.

I invite gentlemen who may desire a very valuable property to call and examine the same, and learn from me the terms, &c.; as I am determined to dispose of it.

IMPROVED GUTTA PERCHA

CEMENT ROOFING.

The Cheapest and most Durable Roofing in use.

IT IS FIRE AND WATER PROOF.

It can be applied to new and old Roofs of all kinds, steep or flat, and to SURROUNDS without removing the Shingles.

The Cost is only about One-third that of Tin, and it is Twice as Durable.

This article has been thoroughly tested in New York City and all parts of the United States, Canada, West Indies and Central and South America, on buildings of all kinds, such as Factories, Warehouses, Churches, Railroads, Docks, and on all kinds of buildings generally. Government Buildings, &c., by the principal Builders, Architects and others, during the past four years, and has proved to be the CHEAPEST and MOST DURABLE ROOFING in use; it is in every respect a FIRE, WATER, LEAK-PROOF and TIME PROOF covering for ROOFS OF ALL KINDS.

This is the ONLY material manufactured in the United States which combines the very desirable properties of Elasticity and Durability, which are universally acknowledged to be possessed by GUTTA PERCHA AND INDIA RUBBER.

No Heat is required in making Application;

The expense of applying it is trifling, as an ordinary Roof can be covered and finished the same day.

IT CAN BE APPLIED BY ANY ONE,

and when finished forms a perfectly FIRE PROOF surface, with an elastic body, which cannot be injured by Heat, Cold or Storms, Scratching or Roof Beams, nor any external action whatever.

Liquid Gutta Percha Cement,

For Coating Metals of all kinds when exposed to the Action of the Weather, and

This is the ONLY COMPOSITION known which will successfully resist extreme changes of all climates, for any length of time, when applied to metals, to which it adheres firmly, forming a body equal to three coats of ordinary paint, costs much less, and will LAST THREE TIMES AS LONG; and from its elasticity is not injured by the contraction and expansion of TIN and other METAL ROOFS, consequent upon sudden changes of the weather.

It will not CRACK in COLD or RUN in WARM WEATHER, AND WILL NOT WASH OFF.

LEAKY TIN AND OTHER METAL ROOFS can be readily repaired with GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT, and prevented from further corrosion and leaking, thereby insuring a PERFECTLY WATER TIGHT ROOF for many years.

This Cement is peculiarly adapted for the preservation of IRON RAILINGS, STOVES, RANGES, SAFES, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, &c., also for general manufacturers use.

GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT

The Phoenix of Hartford.

PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY,
Hartford, Conn., May 12, 1862.

"A big fire at Troy—we are in how much we don't know. May be $20,000; but whatever it is, it will be paid as fast as it is wanted, and no crying. Secretary Kellogg went up there this morning. Mr. Wallace (Adjuster) will meet them to-morrow. They will make short work of it. The fire swept off about fifty acres of buildings—about calamity to Troy, but one human forecast could have prevented. It is the first emergency ever had, and such a one as gives more character to a Company than a hundred $5,000 fires."

HARTFORD, May 13, 1862.

"Our losses may reach $15,000 or $20,000, but whatever they are, they will all be paid before Saturday night if they can be adjusted. It is such a fire that try the backbone of Companies, and if they can stand up under the heavy load, it will give them great credit."

House of Representatives,
Col. WM. B. RANDOLPH,
Chief Clerk U. S. Treasurer's Office,
March 10, 1862-6m.

Proclamation by the Governor.

$250 REWARD.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, it has been made known to me that L. F. GILL murdered his wife on the 4th day of April, 1862, in the county of Casey, and has fled from justice.

Now, therefore, I, BENJAMIN MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS for the apprehension and delivery of the said L. F. Gill to the jailer of Casey county within one year from the date hereof:

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 7th day of July, A. D. 1862, and in the 71st year of the Commonwealth.

B. MAGOFFIN.

By the Governor:
NAT. GAITHER, Jr., Secretary of State.

DESCRIPTION.

Said Gill is about 35 years old; weighs about 160 pounds; has sandy hair; very high cheek bones, and is full over the eyes; is about 5 feet 10 inches high.

July 9th, 1862-wly3m.

Samuel's New Establishment!

HENRY SAMUEL, BARBER AND HAIR DRESSER, is happy to inform his friends and the public that he is again established in comfortable and commodious rooms, and ready to attend to all who may give him a call. His new establishment is in the building of Col. Hodges, on St. Clair street. He solicits public patronage, and hopes that his old friends and customers, especially those who patronized him before the fire, will now give their way back to his shop.
